The American's Creed

I believe the United States of America is a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States, a perfect Union, one and Inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity, for which American Patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country, to love it, to support the Constitution, to obey it's laws, to respect it's flag, and to defend it against all enemies. ~ William Tyler Page

Dedication of Marker

Regent: In remembering the past, we honor the men and women who gave their lives for the preservation of our freedom and future

Chaplain: Father, we thank Thee for the life of Revolutionary War Patriots, whose service to our country and heroic sacrifices aided and advanced the cause of Independence. Help us recognize that fidelity and integrity must guard always the heritage bequeathed by those who had everything to lose. Amen

Regent: Help us to be worthy of our noble dead.

Response: Our forefathers did put their faith in Thee, Oh Lord, and Thee didst deliver them to this land of plenty.

Chaplain: Almighty God, bless our country. May we, it's citizens, be thankful for the blessings Thou hast bestowed upon us. Keep our country, home and family, under Thy loving protection. Amen

Response: History tells us that what is needed today is not just in show of greatness and a parade of power, but a dedication to great ideals and high endeavor.

Regent: Therefore, we the members of the Battle of Shallow Ford Chapter, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, now dedicate this marker in grateful recognition of a patriot of the American Revolution. In honoring Adam Elrod, we also pay tribute to all men and women who have served our country with integrity and devotion. We dedicate ourselves anew to a faithful stewardship of the blessings we enjoy today.

Chaplain: Now may grace and mercy and love abide with us, now and ever more. Amen
